

Stakeford Primary School

Protection of Biometric Information Policy Statement

Biometric data means personal information about an individual's physical or behavioural characteristics that can be used to identify that person; this can include their fingerprints, facial shape, retina and iris patterns, and hand measurements.

At Stakeford Primary School we do not use or collect biometric and if this position were to change the school acknowledges need to implement a biometric data policy before any data is collected.

Date reviewed: 15.2.24

Date of Next Review: 15.2.25